

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Clinical Center Standardization Committee

HAND HYGIENE REVIEW AUGUST 2003 (02)

	Soap is provided by Housekeeping. If soap is needed, notify housekeeping staff in your work area or call 6-2417.
	Avagard D 3M Hand Sanitizer Unit of Issue: Each                      Item #: 01657 Use Any of the Following to Order from Visual Supply Catalog: Antiseptic Hand Sanitizer Avagard D 3M 01657 This alcohol-based hand disinfectant can be used for routine hand decontamination when hands are not visibly soiled (intact skin is not soiled with dirt or organic material).
	Avagard D 3M Hand Sanitizer Unit of Issue: Each                      Item #: 02600 Use Any of the Following to Order from Visual Supply Catalog: Antiseptic Hand Sanitizer Avagard Hand Pump Dispenser 02600 This alcohol-based hand disinfectant can be used for routine hand decontamination when hands are not visibly soiled (intact skin is not soiled with dirt or organic material).
	Accent Plus Lotion* Unit of Issue: Each                      Item #:02665 Use Any of the Following to Order from Visual Supply Catalog: Lotion Accent Plus 02655. This lotion is compatible with all CC gloves. Other hand lotions* may cause microscopic holes in gloves and increase risk for contamination and infection transmission.

These products have effective anti-microbial properties, are compatible with CC gloves and chlorhexidine gluconate. Prolonged use will improve skin health.

*DO NOT USE OTHER HAND LOTIONS. Examples of products that may cause microscopic holes in gloves are Lubriderm, Aveeno and any lotion containing a petroleum base.